*Additional info: Our Package bees include a mated spring Italian Queen and three pounds of bees. Package bees become the responsibility of the customer at the time of pick up. Package bees are to be picked up promptly to ensure they get hived quickly. Some small percentage of bees will have expired in the package while in transit this is normal. We guarantee the queen to be alive. We do not guarantee for successful introduction of queens. If your queen is expired, STOP do not install your package. We will make a new queen available to you. You will be responsible to pick up the new queen at the same location. We do not ship bees or queens via mail. We look forward to seeing you this spring.
